

Environmental sector of the Netherlands

Economic growth of the environmental sector compared to GDP

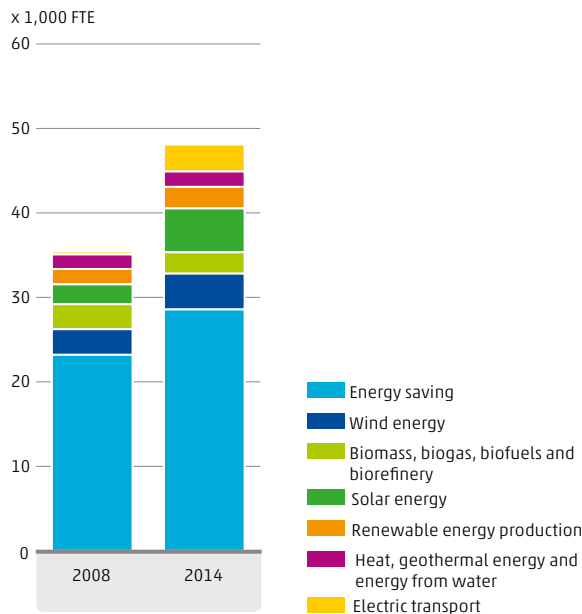

Value added of the environmental sector by economic activity

- Renewable energy and energy saving
- Environmental services, consultancy and engineering
- Wholesale trade in waste and scrap, and preparation for recycling
- Water quantity management
- Environment-related construction activities
- Production of industrial environmental equipment
- Government administration for the environment
- Other activities

Employment in renewable energy and energy saving

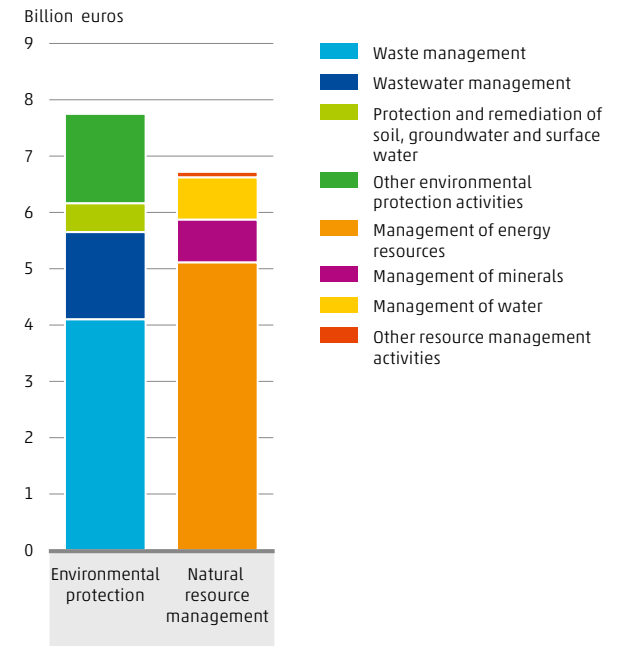

130 thousand full-time jobs in the environmental sector

3.6% of Dutch patent applications involve green technology (OECD)

€ 2.2% of Dutch GDP is created by the environmental sector

Value added of the environmental sector by environmental domain

6 billion euro exports in renewable energy and energy saving system